Subject: Income Tax Component of Contribution Tax Factor Update

PURPOSE

GSWC is filing this advice letter (“AL”) in order to update its Tariff Rule No. 15 to reflect the effects of the November 15, 2021 enactment of H.R. 3684, the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (“IIJA”) (Pub. L. No. 117-58), specifically Section 80601.

BACKGROUND

As stated in GSWC’s AL 1760-W (“1760-W”), filed November 30, 2018, effective January 1, 2018, in which GSWC updated its Income Tax Component of Contribution (“ITCC”) tax factors, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (“TCJA”) repealed subsections (b), (c), and (d) of Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) Sec. 118 (“Sec. 118”), with the result that all Contributions in Aid of Construction (“CIAC”) and Advances in Aid of Construction (“AIAC”) (“Contributions”) became taxable for federal purposes, including those received for governmental-agency projects that were for the benefit of the public in general. As further stated in 1760-W, California has not conformed its law to reflect the TCJA changes to Sec. 118, with the result that two ITCC factors were set forth in 1760-W – one when a Contribution is subject to solely federal taxation and another when a Contribution is subject to both federal and California taxation. 1760-W also incorporated the TCJA reduction of the federal corporate tax rate from a formerly graduated rate with a top tax bracket of 35 percent to a flat tax rate of 21 percent.

TCJA replaced pre-TCJA subsections (b), (c), (d) of Sec. 118 with new subsections (b) and (c), and with former subsection (e) becoming new subsection (d). Not only did the amendments eliminate pre-TCJA’s “special rules for water and sewerage disposal utilities”, it expanded the exceptions of what is not included in the term “contribution to the capital of the taxpayer” by adding “any contribution by any governmental entity or civic group (other than a contribution made by a shareholder as such)” (“government grants”) to the one other exception (“any contribution in aid of construction or any other contribution as a customer or potential customer”).

IIJA Section 80601 restored, retroactively to apply to Contributions made after December 31, 2020, the pre-TCJA “special rules for water and sewerage disposal utilities” (“Special Rules”) by replacing the TCJA version of subsection (c) (“Regulations”, which stated, “The Secretary shall issue such regulations or other guidance as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out this section, including regulations or other guidance for determining whether any contribution constitutes a contribution in aid of construction.”¹) with an expanded version of pre-TCJA subsection (c). IIJA expanded the “special rules for water and sewerage disposal utilities” by adding a second amount that is included as an amount of money or other property received from any person by a regulated public utility that provides water or sewerage disposal services in the term “contribution to the capital of the taxpayer” that is not included as gross income under the general rule of Sec. 118(a) as “a contribution to the capital of such utility by a governmental entity providing for the protection, preservation, or enhancement of drinking water or sewerage disposal services” (Sec. 118(c)(1)(A)(ii)). A change corresponding to this expansion of the Special Rules is found in the construction of Sec. 118(d) where the application of its statute of limitations provisions as they pertain to the expenditure rule of Sec. 118(c)(2) is limited by applying them to a contribution in aid of construction but not to a contribution to the capital of a qualified water or sewerage utility by a governmental entity providing for the protection, preservation, or enhancement of drinking water or sewerage disposal services.

GSWC herewith updates its Tariff Rule No. 15 to reflect the above-described IJJA amendments to Sec. 118, including in compliance with the Water Division’s February 1, 2022 memorandum (as corrected pursuant to its February 11, 2022 memorandum) requesting utilities to submit Tier 1 advice letters to bring their Tariff Rule No. 15 into compliance with Section 80601 of H.R. 3684. In doing so, GSWC provides the following additional background pertaining to California’s conformity, and extent thereof, to Sec. 118 that GSWC has considered in order to make its present update of its Tariff Rule No. 15.

As added by Ch. 604, Section 1, Laws 1991, to the California Corporation Tax Law (“CTL”), California Revenue and Taxation Code (“R&TC”) Section 24324 generally provided for Contributions to be excluded from taxable gross income for Contributions made on or after January 1, 1977 and before January 1, 1992. Subsequently, Ch. 698, Section 20, Laws 1992, added R&TC Sec. 24325 to the CTL as a conformity provision resulting in the CTL being conformed to Sec. 118 for Contributions made on or after January 1, 1992. California is known as a “fixed-date conformity” state. That is, California’s references and conformity to federal tax law are with respect to a specified date of federal tax law (R&TC Sec. 23051.5(a)(1)). The last time that California updated its specified date was pursuant to Ch. 359, Sec. 1, Laws 2015, effective September 30, 2015, to change the specified date to January 1, 2015 for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015 (R&TC Sec. 17024.5(a)(1)(P)). Prior to TCJA’s amendment of Sec. 118., Sec. 118 had not been amended since August 20, 1996 when the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (Pub. L. No. 104-188) added the “special rules for water and sewerage disposal utilities” that TCJA repealed. Given California’s current January 1, 2015 fixed-date conformity to the IRC, TCJA’s amendments to Sec. 118 were inapplicable for CTL purposes, as are IJJA’s amendments to it. As a result, the IJJA amendments involving government grants are inapplicable for CTL purposes. The Legislative Services Bureau of the Finance and Executive Services Division of the California Franchise Tax Board communicated² its agreement with GSWC's conclusion on the extent of the CTL conformity to Sec. 118.

In summary, because there are three federal versions of Sec. 118 (pre-TCJA's, TCJA's, and IIJA's) relevant to the evolution of the ITCC federal tax factor in AL 1760-W and this filing, but only one version of Sec. 118 for California purposes (pre-TCJA's), the contrast (i.e., extent of conformity) between the federal and California versions of Sec. 118 does not simply revert to the federal pre-TCJA status, but rather changes to a comparison to the federal IIJA status. As explained, above, federal Sec. 118 continued to evolve with IIJA rather than simply revert to a purely pre-TCJA status.

As a result of pre-TCJA Sec. 118 being applicable for California purposes, and IIJA Sec. 118 being applicable for federal purposes, GSWC's update to its Tariff Rule No. 15 reflects the possibility of government grants being subject to the CTL even if they are not subject to federal income tax. Consequently, a California-state-only ITCC factor has replaced the federal-only ITCC factor in the table at E.3.a. of GSWC's Tariff Rule No. 15 to reflect an ITCC tax factor of 0.08 (8%) for government grants subject to California, but not federal, taxation. Given that (a) the U.S. Treasury has not issued any regulations on either the TCJA or IIJA versions of Sec. 118., (b) IIJA struck TCJA's version of Sec. 118(c) that provided for the Secretary of the Treasury to issue necessary or appropriate regulations or other guidance to carry out Sec. 118, (c) there exists no guidance with respect to current Sec. 118(c)(1)(A)(ii), and (d) the CTL is not conformed to Sec. 118(c)(1)(A)(ii), GSWC reserves the right to determine the applicable ITCC tax factor with respect to a government grant based on the facts and circumstances of the particular grant.

Because Tariff Form No. 17 makes reference to the ITCC in Tariff Rule No. 15, and was last updated in 1760-W in the context of TJCA, GSWC also updates its Tariff Form No. 17 coincident with updating its Tariff Rule No. 15. Tariff Rule No. 16 also makes reference to Tariff Rule No. 15 and incorporates the 0.28 (28%) ITCC tax factor in its tables. In the unlikely event that a government grant is applicable in the application of Tariff Rule No. 16, GSWC will make a determination as to whether the 0.08 (8%) ITCC tax factor should be applied in lieu of the 0.28 (28%) factor and is therefore not updating its Tariff Rule No. 16 coincident with updating its Tariff Rule No. 15.

TARIFF SHEET NOTATIONS

The changes with respect to the ITCC made in Rule No. 15, and Form No. 17, which are denoted with the Commission's standardized symbols, are consistent with the content of the Background section in this advice letter.
